Creanluith or Round Movement.

This page of a musical score, numbered 66, contains ten systems of piano music. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The music is written in a key with two sharps (F# and C#) and a 3/4 time signature. The notation is dense, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together in groups. The first nine systems show a complex, fast-paced melody in the treble hand, while the bass hand provides a steady, rhythmic accompaniment. The tenth system is marked with the text "Doubling of Creanluith." and continues the same musical style. The paper is aged and slightly discolored.
