

Privacy Notice

The Piobaireachd Society is a charity regulated by Scottish Charity Regulator, charity number SC001113

Information that can identify you (Personal information) is collected, processed, stored and used by the Piobaireachd Society. This information is gathered from website application forms and written applications. The personal data that is collected includes, name, address, and e-mail address. For those members joining through the website Paypal information is stored and those whose subscription is paid by direct debit, bank details will only be stored by Piobaireachd Society's bank.

Personal information will be used to communicate articles of interest, activities of the Society and notification of expiry of membership. Personal information will not be passed on to any third parties. We will not collect any personal information that we do not require for these purposes.

The personal information we collect is processed from the website data you provide and is held on the website in electronic format. This is only accessible by committee members with administrative access, i.e. the President, Secretary and Treasurer. Those members who pay by direct debit have their personal details stored on computer by the Secretary and Treasurer. No third parties have access to this information. Personal details may be held up to one year after resignation before being permanently deleted unless required by law.

We will take reasonable precautions to prevent loss, misuse or alteration of information you give us, including the use of firewalls, passwords and backup. Communications wherever possible will be sent by email and for ease of use and compatibility will not be encrypted. We will endeavour to keep our systems and communications protected against viruses and malware.

Those members listed on the website have direct password protected access to the information which is held about them which can be modified and updated.

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal information you can contact us to have the matter investigated.
