

Vikings - Crunluath

This is a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Vikings - Crunluath". The score is written on ten staves, each beginning with a treble clef. The notation is in a traditional, somewhat sketchy style, featuring a variety of note values including minims, crotchets, and quavers. Many notes are beamed together in groups, suggesting rapid passages or complex rhythms. The music is organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes. There are several small, handwritten annotations throughout the score, including the number "2" below the second staff, "4" below the third staff, "5" below the fourth staff, "8" below the fifth staff, "10" below the sixth staff, "12" below the seventh staff, "14" below the eighth staff, and "15" below the ninth staff. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored, with some faint lines visible across the page.
